Knox County Tour Itinerary

Day 1 - Tuesday, June 11th

Departure from Grand Island with continental breakfast served onboard the motor coach. We will arrive in Crofton this morning for time to explore the Lewis & Clark Pulley Museum, housing the largest collection of restored hay pulleys in the United States! Coffee will be available for you as you browse this unique collection. Next stop, the Lewis & Clark Visitor Center, owned and operated by the Army Corp of Engineers and located on Calumet Bluff just downstream from Gavins Point Dam with exhibits and information on the Missouri River Basin of Nebraska. Lunch included today at CJ's on the lake. This afternoon take a ride in a Model T, see a horsemanship demonstration, visit the gift shop and museum and hear a presentation about life on the WJ ranch! Live cowboy music, coffee, tea and dessert included. A short drive takes us to the beautiful Nissen Winery where you will enjoy wine tasting and hear some Outlaw storytelling. Supper included tonight at Sportman's Bar & Grill. Overnight at Ohiya Casino, Niobrara.

Day 2 - Wednesday, June 12th

Breakfast is included followed by a Santee Sioux Nation Cultural Exchange this morning. Another exciting day awaits as we head for Standing Bear Monument and a great photo opportunity before arriving at the Ponca Tribe of Nebraska Pow Wow Grounds for a tour and an indigenous lunch. This afternoon experience the Miller Farm, wagon rides and see the day to day operation of this family owned piece of Nebraska history. Our day concludes with a visit to Niobrara State Park for a Civil War Presentation to learn about the U.S. Army along the Niobrara in the 1860's. Supper and star gazing to follow with the National Park Rangers. Overnight at Ohiya Casino.

Day 3 - Thursday, June 13th

Breakfast is included, then we return to Niobrara State Park this morning for a Birding and Nature presentation from the Nebraska Game & Park Department. A short drive takes us to Verdigris for an authentic Czech lunch and polka music! The thrift store and bakery will be open, grab some treats to take home. After our stop at Verdigris we'll depart for home with great memories of a beautiful trip to Knox County, Nebraska.
